A Ceremony of Carols

Benjamin Britten

About A Ceremony of Carols

A Ceremony of Carols was written when English composer Benjamin Britten was 29 years old (1942) and travelling by ship from New York to England during the Second World War. When the ship stopped in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Britten purchased a book of medieval poetry. Poems from this book, along with Gregorian Chant and other poetry spanning 14th to 16th century England, were the inspiration for A Ceremony of Carols, which includes both a Christmas narrative as well as references to the re-birth of spring.

It is one of Britten's most popular and widely performed works, particularly at the Christmas season. This masterwork was originally premiered by a women's choir, revised for treble choir with harp, and subsequently arranged for various voice combinations.

A Ceremony of Carols is innovative in many respects, such as use of the harp as the sole accompanying instrument for a large choral work.

Harp - Paula Provo

3. There is no Rose

There is no rose of such vertu
As is the rose that bare Jesu.
Alleluia, Alleluia.
For in this rose containèd was
Heaven and earth in litel space,
Res miranda, Res miranda.
By that rose we may well see
There be one God in persons three,
Pares forma, pares forma,
The aungels sungen the shepherds to:
Gloria in excelsis,
gloria in excelsis Deo!
Gaudeamus, Gaudeamus.
Leave we all this worldly mirth, and follow we this joyful birth.
Transeamus, Transeamus, Transeamus.
Alleluia, Res miranda, Pares forma, Gaudeamus,
Transeamus, Transeamus, Transeamus.

4(a). That yongë childe Soloist - Angela Schermitzler

That yongë child when it gan weep
With song she lulled him asleep:
That was so sweet a melody it passèd alle minstrelsy.
The nightingalë sang also:
Her song is hoarse ___ and nought thereto:
Whoso attendeth to her song
And leaveth the first ___ then doth he wrong.

4(b). Balulalow Soloist -Sarah Smith

O my deare hert, young Jesu sweit,
Prepare thy creddil in my spreit, And I sall rock thee to my hert,
And never mair from thee depart.
But I sall praise thee evermoir with sanges sweit unto thy gloir;
The knees of my hert sall I bow, And sing that richt Balulalow.

5. As dew in Aprille

I sing of a maiden that is makèles:
King of all kings to her son she ches
He came also stille there his moder was,
As dew in Aprille that falleth on the grass.
He came also stille to his moder's bour,
As dew in Aprille that falleth on the flour.
He came also stille there his moder lay,
As dew in Aprille that falleth on the spray.
Moder and mayden was never none but she:
Well may such a lady Goddes moder be.

6. This little Babe

This little Babe so few days old,
Is come to rifle Satan's fold;
All hell doth at his presence quake,
Though he himself for cold do shake;
For in this weak unarmed wise
The gates of hell he will surprise.
With tears he fights and wins the field,
His naked breast stands for a shield;
His battering shot are babish cries,
His arrows looks of weeping eyes,
His martial ensigns Cold and Need,
And feeble Flesh his warrior's steed.
His camp is pitched in a stall,
His bulwark but a broken wall;
The crib his trench, haystalks his stakes;
Of shepherds he his muster makes;
And thus, as sure his foe to wound,
The angels' trumps alarum sound.
My soul, with Christ join thou in fight;
Stick to the tents that he hath pight.
Within his crib is surest ward;
This little Babe will be thy guard.
If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy,
Then flit not from this heavenly Boy.

7. Interlude

Harp - Paula Provo

8. In Freezing Winter Night

Soloists - Kelly Johnson, Claudia Navarrete

Behold, a silly tender babe, in freezing winter night,
In homely manger trembling lies.
Alas, a piteous sight!
The inns are full; no man will yield
This little pilgrim bed.
But forced he is with silly beasts
In crib to shroud his head.
This stable is a Prince's court,
This crib his chair of State;
The beasts are parcel of his pomp,
The wooden dish his plate.
The persons in that poor attire
His royal liveries wear;
The Prince himself is come from heaven;
This pomp is prized there.
With joy approach, O Christian wight,
Do homage to thy King,
And highly praise his humble pomp, wich he from Heaven doth bring.

9. Spring Carol

Soloists - Sarah Smith, Carolyn Nyland

Pleasure it is to hear iwis, the Birdès sing,
The deer in the dale, the sheep in the vale, the corn springing
God's purveyance for sustenance.
It is for man. It is for man.
Then we always to give him praise,
And thank him than.

10. Deo Gracias

Deo gracias! Deo gracias!
Adam lay ibounden, bounden in a bond;
Four thousand winter thought he not to long.
Deo gracias! Deo gracias!
And all was for an appil, an appil that he tok,
As clerkès finden written in their book.
Deo gracias! Deo gracias!
Ne had the appil takè ben, the appil takè ben,
Ne haddè never our lady a ben hevenè quene.
Blessèd be the time that appil takè was.
Therefore we moun singen.
Deo gracias! Deo gracias! Deo gracias! Deo gracias!

Eleanor Johnson

Director, North Valley Chorale

Eleanor Johnson, the founding director of the North Valley Chorale (NVC), has enriched the Valley through music ministry for over twenty-five years.

Under her inspiring leadership, the NVC grew from 12 singers of sacred music in 2008 to today's nearly 60 members, adding Broadway, pop, classical and patriotic music to the repertoire and recording two CDs. This summer Mrs. Johnson led the NVC on its first international tour and recently to Kennedy Center in Washington, DC for the National Memorial Day Choral Festival. She looks forward to directing the group's Broadway concert this spring at the Herberger Theater Center.

Mrs. Johnson started her music career as a soprano soloist in Toronto, Canada, performing with the Canadian Brass, Taffelmusik, Tapestry Singers, the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir and for local churches, also serving as organist and choir director. After moving to Phoenix in 1988 with her husband, Graham, and four children (aged 1 through 8), their three sons sang with the Phoenix Boys Choir, daughter studied ballet, and all four children learned the piano and string instruments.

Mrs. Johnson served for many years as the Director of Music for a large Valley church where she developed a ministry of over 250 in vocal and hand bell choirs and orchestra. Today, when not planning or rehearsing for an NVC concert, Mrs. Johnson continues to assist local churches as an organist and choir director and teaches voice and piano.
